

DICK AND GROVER DID NOT QUARREL

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND AND SECRETARY OLNEY AGREE.

Perfect Unanimity of Opinion Said to Exist Between Them On the Venezuelan Question—All Reports to the Contrary Notwithstanding—Cul-lom's Ideas of It.

Washington, Oct. 24.—The rumored clash in the cabinet between the president and his secretary of state over questions of foreign policy has been widely discussed here, and almost unanimously denounced as a "fake," suggested probably by Secretary Ol-ney's failure to accompany the president and cabinet to Atlanta. When Mr. Olney was elevated to the first place in the cabinet to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Gresham, the president was thoroughly familiar with his views on foreign affairs. He had had two years' association with

SECRETARY OF STATE OLNEY.

him at the cabinet table, and had listened to his opinion upon the Monroe doctrine and questions of foreign policy. It is therefore unreasonable to suppose that either Mr. Olney, who accepted the state department portfolio fully aware of the president's views on affairs of state, or that the president, who thoroughly understood him, should find cause for disagreement in a subject which has been discussed over and over again since Mr. Cleveland was first inaugurated in 1885.
This rumor is undoubtedly in line with the sensational dispatches which have recently been sent broadcast over the country concerning developments in the Venezuela boundary dispute, and is generally accepted here as having no more foundation.

Senator Cullom left Washington last night for Illinois, uncertain whether his duties would permit him to enter the Ohio campaign. In speaking of the SENATOR CULLOM.

Venezuelan situation, after admitting that he did not know much about what has been done and what is in contemplation by the present administration, he advocated a vigorous foreign policy. He thinks that the Venezuelan boundary dispute will come before the next congress. "There is no question about the sentiment in congress being in favor of the upholding of the Monroe doctrine," said Senator Cullom. "It is a right doctrine and should be upheld. I presume the doctrine will be declared in some more or less formal manner by congress, and if the situation demands that anything be done to enforce its observance, congress, I think, can be relied upon to act promptly. Great Britain does not seem to care very much for our opinion or our wishes, and we must maintain our own dignity and uphold our own rights.
It looks as if most of the foreign powers had begun to feel that the United States is getting too powerful to maintain the old attitude of indifference toward the affairs of the world, and as if the saw in our increasing strength some imagined danger to themselves. They seem to be bridling up and displaying a disposition to press us back, forestalling any possible aggressiveness on our part."

Speaking of the next congress, Senator Cullom expressed the opinion that the session would be short, that there was very little prospect of financial legislation and that the administration would have to accept such provision for increased revenue as the republican congress would be willing to give or else have no relief at all.

Schweinfurth in Luck.

Rockford, Ill., Oct. 24.—There is a possibility that the trial of George Jacob Schweinfurth may go over to the next term of court. State's Attorney Frost is experiencing much difficulty in getting all his witnesses, several being out of the state, and there is no available fund to defray their traveling expenses.

Machine Works Destroyed.

Mount Carmel, Ill., Oct. 24.—The Standard Machine works burned yesterday. The loss is $65,000.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION ENDS.

Important Resolution Adopted at the Closing Session.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 24.—Music Hall was packed to the doors at the closing exercises of the National W. C. T. U. convention last night. Mrs. J. Fowler Willing, National evangelist, conducted the service. After the presentation of banners and expressions of thanks and farewells each delegation rose and sang its state song. After the singing of the state songs the delegates and visitors sang the doxology and the convention was at an end. Next year's convention will probably be held in San Francisco. The national body has never met in California. The place will be selected by the executive committee.

In the words of Frances Willard, the convention was the largest in representation, the broadest in scope of work and declaration of principles, and the most enthusiastic in the history of this noble organization of women. Other leaders of the union agree with Miss Willard in this opinion and say the results of the convention will be widespread in effect. The veteran president carried the convention with her in the closing hours, when, in an eloquent and forcible address, she welcomed to the W. C. T. U. movement Catholics and Hebrews. This resolution was adopted after considerable discussion: "That Catholic women and Hebrew women be invited to send fraternal delegates from their annual conventions to the national convention of the W. C. T. U. and to establish branches of the White Ribbon society within their own borders."

Mrs. Matilda B. Carse, president of the board of managers of the W. C. T. U., National Headquarters Temple in Chicago, reported on the condition of the finances. From October, 1894, to October, 1895, the cash receipts amounted to $30,612.52, an increase of $13,000 over the preceding year. In the list of state contributions are named the following as giving the largest amounts during the year: Illinois, $3,- 397.08; Massachusetts, $3,440.41; New York, $3,412.51; Pennsylvania, $2,520.- 49; Ohio, $2,500; and Iowa, $2,154.94.
The report was adopted.

A resolution was adopted declaring that as this was a crusade year in the Temple enterprise all white ribbon women were asked to pledge themselves to help raise the necessary funds to secure all the outstanding stock of the Temple Building association by the 1st of January. The convention extended thanks to Theodore Roosevelt for his stand for the enforcement of the law.

Mrs. Henry F. Hunt of Boston, superintendent of temperance instruction, presented the state of Illinois with the prize banner for having made the greatest increase in the work of introducing indorsed text-books in the schools.
Last year the state reported sixty-four towns where these books were being used, while at this convention they reported 1,000, a remarkable gain.

Only Two More Boodle Witnesses.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 24.—The Peoria county grand jury did not do much in the legislative boodling investigation yesterday, only two witnesses being examined. Col. John Warner, ex-mayor of Peoria, is the only remaining witness, and his testimony will be given today. He will be questioned on the efforts of the senate slop-feed committee to secure a bribe from the Peoria distilleries. R. C. Grier, secretary of the board of trade, would have been a witness today, but was called East and will not return for several weeks. No indictments have yet been returned, and probably will not be until the close of the week.

Controversy Is Not Serious.

London, Oct. 24.—The London Times prints a long cable from its New York correspondent quoting in full the New York World's London dispatch of Monday night last concerning an interview and other communications between Lord Salisbury and Ambassador Bayard on the Venezuela question. The Times correspondent says that if the facts stated are true "they will have considerable influence upon American opinion; if they are not true a contradiction might be useful." Appearances seem to indicate that there is just now no serious or pressing controversy between the two nations on the subject.

Acquitted of a Serious Charge.

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 24.—Ex-Congressman George Dorsey, president of the Ponca National bank, which failed last spring, was acquitted yesterday of the charge of falsifying the books of the institution. The ex-congressman was indicted jointly with Frank Dorsey and Ed Higgins, but the present trial of George Dorsey is against himself alone.
The defendant showed that he was not responsible for the inaccuracy of the books.

Thirty-third Degree Masons.

Washington, Oct. 24.—At the third day's session of the Supreme Council of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite Masons yesterday the discussion of the report of the judiciary committee was resumed. William A. Hershiser, Columbus, O., was elected commander, and other officers were chosen. At night a banquet was held at the National hotel at which wives and daughters of members of the order were admitted.

Nine Persons Injured at a Fire.

Delta, Iowa, Oct. 24.—The high school building burned yesterday and nine people were injured.

GROVER IS GREETED BY A BIG CROWD

MANY PEOPLE AT THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

Mr. Cleveland Delivers a Short Address After Reviewing the Troops Gathered In His Honor—The Presidential Party On Its Way to Washington—Courtesies Extended Him

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 24.—No brighter or balmier sun ever shone over this particular portion of the southland than that which dawned yesterday, Presidential day at the Cotton States and International exposition. The thousands of visitors landed in the city early swelled the throngs on the street to immense proportions, and locomotion soon became difficult.

In accordance with the carefully laid plans of the exposition management, the exercises of the day were concentrated within the exposition grounds, into which the cohorts of visitors and large proportion of the population of the city emptied themselves during the morning.

The Presidential party spent the morning quietly at the Aragon, where they remained until 11 o'clock, when they were driven rapidly to the exposition grounds, without any parade whatever. Inside the gates the military was already gathered. The troops paraded around the board walk within the fair inclosure and were reviewed by the President from a stand in front of the government building.

After the review the president delivered an address. He was introduced by President Collier of the Exposition company, who referred to him as the man who had been entrusted with the duty of wiping out sectional issues and lines. The most brilliant social function that has yet taken place in connection with the exposition was the reception tendered in the afternoon by Mrs. Joseph Thompson, president of the women's board, to the women of the country who received their education at the convent school of the Nuns of the Order of Visitation, at Georgetown, D. C. It is to be doubted if there has ever been in the United States a more notable gathering of women than that present.

The series of courtesies extended to the presidential party was concluded at night with a reception at the Capital City club, which put itself on record as the most elaborate social function ever undertaken in the South. The chief executive reached the club, accompanied by the cabinet and the ladies of the cabinet, between 9 and 10 o'clock and spent an hour or more receiving the 1,500 people present. Maj.
Livingston Mims, president of the club, did the honors of the occasion. After the reception, the president and his party boarded their special train and

The national guard of Georgia refused to turn out in honor of the president. It was not due to any desire to be discourteous to the president, but it was the outgrowth of mere petty jealousy between local companies. The result of this fight will in all probability be the disintegration of the present military organization of the state. It has been with great difficulty that the legislature has been induced to make annual appropriations for encampment purposes, and the action of the Fifth regiment, representing the volunteer forces, will doubtless have the tendency to weaken the position of the military organization before the legislature.

BEAT A CHILD TO DEATH.

Indiana Farmer Guilty of Horrible Cruelty to His Niece.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 24.—Some days ago a physician was called to see Sallie Davis, a 12-year-old child who
in Spencer county. She was suffering from bruises and cuts upon her body and seemed to be terribly depressed, and when asked how her injuries were received she made no reply. The girl grew worse and died three or four days later. Investigation shows that Taylor was accustomed to beat his niece unmercifully for the merest trifles, and two days before the physician was called he assaulted her with a broom-handle, beating her over the shoulders and upon her limbs till the child could not walk. The coroner returned a verdict charging Taylor with the murder of his niece, but he fled before he could be arrested.

Prizefight Law Sustained.

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 24.—The supreme court yesterday rendered its decision in the Corbett case. Judge Leatherman's decision was reversed and the prizefight law sustained. Corbett was remanded back to the custody of the sheriff of Garland County. Chief Justice Bunn, in delivering the opinion, severely criticised Chancellor Leatherman, saying he had no authority for his action in the habeas corpus case.
President Babcock has repudiated the offer made Monday by the Hot Springs Athletic Club for Fitzsimmons to fight Corbett here Nov. 1 for a purse of $10,- 000.

Boy Held for Murder.

Ishpeming, Mich., Oct. 24.—Charles Wendel, the 15-year-old lad accused of the assault and murder of a 5-year-old child last June, yesterday waived examination and was held for trial at the next term of the circuit court.

BIG CURAN VICTORY IS SAID TO BE WON

INSURGENTS OUTCLASS THE SPANISH TROOPS.

Battle Reported In Which the Spanish Soldiers Were Badly Defeated—Rebels Prisoners Shot In Squads of Ten—War Material From Spain—Rebels Burn a Big Plantation.

New York, Oct. 24.—Reports of a desperate battle in the San Juan coffee-growing valley between Holguin and Barajagua, has been confirmed by dispatches received by the Cuban junta.
The forces engaged were led by Gen.
Antonio Maceo, with 3,000 Cubans, and Gen. Echague with 1,800 Spaniards.
The Spanish troops hesitated at critical times and did not fight with the valor which distinguished their ancestors. About 300 of their number were killed.

From Havana comes word that it is the daily practice of the Spanish jailers to take several prisoners from the forts and prisons and shoot them. Each morning the prisoners are stood in line.
Ten men are selected for death. Perhaps it is the first ten; perhaps the last ten men, or the middle ten. In the province of Santa Clara Gen. Luqueis is said to be rivaling the reputation of Garrido, the "butcher" in the eastern province, according to letters received from Sagua la Grande, on the north coast of Cuba. His force recently captured a mountain hospital near Diego del Valle, after a fierce combat with 200 Cubans, who were guarding the sick insurgents, unable to participate in the engagements. The Spanish soldiers put every one of them to the bayonet. Not one was left alive.

Insurgents Burn a Plantation.

Havana, Oct. 24.—The plantation of San Manuel, the property of Marquis Apegetui, was burned by a band of sixty insurgents commanded by Jose Munoz. Troops are in pursuit of the insurgents, and the soldiers have already killed one and wounded three of the enemy.

War Materials for Cuba.

Madrid, Oct. 24.—Three additional torpedo boats have been ordered to Cuba and another consignment of 1,500 Mauzer rifles have been forwarded to Havana.

ILLINOIS MINE OPERATORS.

Uniform Wage Scale Adopted at a Meeting at Peoria.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 24.—A meeting of the coal operators of the Peoria district along the line of the Toledo, Peoria and Western, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy, the Iowa Central, and the Fulton County Narrow Gauge was held yesterday at the National hotel. It was decided to maintain a uniform scale of wages for mining and a uniform selling price to the trade. After the election of temporary officers and a general discussion of the trade prices of coal were advanced 25 cents a ton for the month of November, which means an advance in the retail price. An adjournment was taken to Nov. 20, when a permanent organization will be effected.

Universalist Convention.

Meriden, Conn., Oct. 24.—At the convention of the Universalists here yesterday the only matter of importance was the discussion of the profession of faith which was reported by the committee appointed, with some minor changes. The report was accepted after discussion by a vote of 69 to 15. The matter will come before the next convention again, and if it is then accepted the changed profession will be adopted.

Child Devoured by Hogs.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 24.—The 2-year-old child of Mrs. George Richards of Ford county was pulled into the hog pen and was devoured before the eyes of the mother, who, attracted by the child's screams, ran to the spot, but too late to render any assistance, though she caught the arm of the child, which the hogs then severed from the body.

Masons Dedicate a Home.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 24.—The magnificent new Masonic home was dedicated here yesterday. The new home is the most magnificent building of its kind in America. The site is two and one-half miles west of the city. It covers 125 acres, and the view from the hill, where the building is situated, is most commanding and beautiful. The cost of building and grounds is in the neighborhood of $150,000.

Will Meet at Washington Dec. 10.

New York, Oct. 24.—Dec. 10, at the Arlington hotel, Washington, the republican national committee will meet to decide formally on the place and time for holding the national convention. Chairman Carter issued the call last evening after a conference with the party leaders.

Dr. Talmage Formally Installed.

ence of a gathering that filled the edifice, the Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage was last night installed as co-pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

Ohio Town in Flames.

Toledo, O., Oct. 24.—Reports from Gibsonburg, O., an oil town twenty miles south of here, say that the entire town is in flames.

DESIDENT MOTHER'S ACT.

Illinois Woman Hangs Her Little Daughter and Kills Herself.

Cairo, Ill., Oct. 24.—In the township of Willard, this, Alexander county, Tuesday evening, a most horrible tragedy was enacted at the residence of a farmer, William McClarney, to whose home had come to dwell some months since the Roush family, consisting of husband, wife and a little girl of perhaps four summers. Roush left the locality some weeks since to seek employment, which he found on the Mississippi river in the government service. His wife remained on the farm and was engaged in domestic duties. She soon became despondent and melancholy. Tuesday evening Mc-Clarney, having been absent, returned home, and noticing that his barnyard fowls had not been housed, proceeded to open the door of the chicken-house.
Looking around, he was horrified to see the bodies of Mrs. Roush and her little daughter hanging from the rafters, dead. Death by strangulation seemed to have been an afterthought, as a large butcher knife and loaded shotgun were found near the bodies.

CHICAGO FOR A CENTER.

Unitarian Convention Discusses Church Extension in the West.

Washington, Oct. 24.—Church extension and temperance reform were the themes before the national conference of Unitarians and other Christian churches yesterday. The discussion of church extension was opened by Rev.
Charles W. Wendte, of Oakland, Cal., who spoke glowingly of the outlook of the church on the Pacific coast. Rev.
A. W. Gould, of Chicago, said the problem to be faced in the Central West was the division in the ranks of the Unitarians themselves. He made a strong plea for support, deprecating the financial aid rendered by Eastern societies, and urging the building of a strong self-supporting Unitarian system in that section, its center to be Chicago. A meeting was held in the afternoon at All Souls' church, at which modern methods in temperance reform were discussed.

Mob Around an Ohio Jail.

Tiffin, O., Oct. 24.—Lee Martin, a farmer near Watson, yesterday tried to strangle a small boy to death. His screams brought the assistance of Frank Burkhart, who was hunting in the woods close by. Burkhart swore out a warrant for Martin's arrest and at night Officer Sweeney and Marshal Shultz went to the scene. When they reached the home of Martin a terrible struggle occurred, in which Marshal Shultz was shot and died within a few minutes. Officer Sweeney was shot, but not fatally. Martin was lodged in jail in this city, and large crowds are about the jail and it is feared he will be lynched.

Women's Missionary Society.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 24.—The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church convened yesterday at the Union Methodist Episcopal church, and for the next two weeks daily sessions will be held. The meeting is national. This society is composed of eleven branches, the secretaries of which are now here assembled in executive session to receive the reports of the various departments and to map out the plan of action for next year. Next week two delegates from each branch will arrive and join the secretaries in the work.

Row in South Carolina Convention.

Columbia, S. D., Oct. 24.—Last night the convention was enlivened by a hot war of words between Senator Tillman and Frank E. Gary, a delegate from Abbeville, during which the lie was passed. Gary charged that Tillman had entered into a secret combination to rush three new counties through the convention. Senator Tillman got very much excited at the untruth, as he called it. After the convention the gentlemen met and mutual explanations were made.

Wrecked by a Herd of Cattle.

East Radford, Va., Oct. 24.—A fast through freight on the Norfolk & Western road was wrecked by a herd of cattle three miles west of Max Meadows at 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The following were instantly killed: Engineer George O'Neill, Fireman C. P.
Lindamood, Front Brakeman Ed Houston. All were from Bristol, Tenn.
Conductor Lewis Moore and two other brakemen were seriously injured.

Ex-Senator Van Wyck Improves.

Van Wyck of Nebraska, who was stricken with apoplexy Monday afternoon is somewhat better. His condition, however, is very grave and the attack may terminate fatally.

o'clock yesterday destroyed J. L.
Dumphrey's grain elevator and the elecness houses on the west side of the town. The loss is $40,000.

One Killed, Five Injured.

Newburyport, Mass., Oct. 24.—Chas.
McManus was killed, James H. P. Reed was fatally injured and four others the dry and mixing room of the Fibreloid works on Water street.

FICKLE MAN TO PAY THE GIRL HE "QUIT"

MARINETTE WOMAN RECOVERS

Moses Freshett Failed to Marry Josepha Kodadenki and a Suit For Breach of Promise Follows—Railroad Company Must Give Mrs. Cook $500 For Ejecting Her.

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 24.—[Special] —Some time ago Moses Freshett promised to marry Miss Josepha Kodadenki, but last summer he fell in love with another girl. For this breach of faith he must pay Miss Kodadenki two thousand dollars.
The jury was out but one hour.

The jury in the case of Mrs. Isabelle Cook against the Wisconsin & Michigan railway returned verdict of five hundred dollars for the plaintiff. She sued for five thousand dollar damages as she had been put off a train in the woods and had to walk several miles.

SENSATIONAL TESTIMONY.

Evidence in the Trial of Col. Colt Favors the Defendant.

Circleville, O., Oct. 24.—Joseph Bangh caused a sensation by his testimony in the Colt manslaughter trial yesterday.
He said P. Popjoy Wilcox and H. Kirk told him a meeting would be held in Grand Army hall at Jeffersonville to organize a mob to go to Washington court house and lynch the negro Dolby.
This talk was general on the streets of Jeffersonville. He drove to Washington with several other men and passed a great many vehicles on the road bound in the same direction. All whom he addressed said they were going to hang Dolby. One man carried a shotgun. Fifteen hundred people were around the court house when the negro was being taken from the jail into court. William Kirk cried, "Now for him, boys," and he rushed with the others into the line of soldiers. He saw the battering ram used and said men as well as boys had hold of it.

Waterways Convention Adjourns.

Vicksburg, Miss., Oct. 24.—The national waterways convention completed its labors at 2 p. m. yesterday and adjourned sine die, after selecting Davenport, Iowa, for the next convention. A resolution in favor of the Nicaragua canal was adopted by acclamation. The resolutions declare that the necessity for the improvement of the waterways becomes more urgent yearly, and that they should be treated by congress with great liberality. The fostering of the commerce of the great lakes is advocated and the work of the deep waterways associated is endorsed. Additional appropriations are asked for the improvement and deepening of the upper Mississippi river and the completion of the Mississippi and Illinois canal. The connection of the great lakes with the Mississippi and Ohio rivers is strongly commended to congress.

Behring Sea Convention.

Washington, Oct. 24.—It is stated officially that Mackenzie Bowell, premier of Canada, and Sir Charles Tupper, minister of justice in the Canadian cabinet, will arrive in Washington next Monday to assist in the Behring sea convention. The meetings of the convention will be held at the state department, Secretary Olney representing the United States, and Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, representing her majesty's government. The convention will seek to reach a fair mode of adjustment. Under the Paris award some sum must be paid by the United States, so the only question involved is how much the payment should be.

Durant Case Closing.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 24.—Testimony in the trial of Theodore Durant is all in, and today the argument of the case begins. Two physicians were examined yesterday. Their testimony was important from the fact that it showed that Durant did not have the appearance of one who had been partly asphyxiated when he met Organist King in the church on the afternoon of April 3.

Pope Leo Failing Fast.

Lausanne, Switzerland, Oct. 24.—The Gazette de Lausanne says that although it is not true that the pope is dying, it is learned that his strength has rapidly declined during the last few months. His entourage is of the opinion that he will not survive the winter, and it is added that all his vitality seems to be centered in his brain.

Sustains Prohibition Law.

Bismarck, N. D., Oct. 24.—In the Pepke habeas corpus case, wherein Attorney Spooner of Minneapolis attacked the prohibition law, the supreme court dismissed the writ. This sustains the law, though it is possible Spooner will try again.

Haughy Breaking Down.

Michigan City, Ind., Oct. 24.—A peculiar family reunion was held in this

WHAT KIND OF PLAYS DO YOU WANT TO SEE

MANAGER STODDARD IS FEELING THE PUBLIC PULSE.

If First Class Attractions Are Not Appreciated, Then We'll Get Ten, Twenty and Thirty Cent Ones—The "Vale of Avoca" Was Exceptionally Good.

What kind of theatrical attractions do Janesville people want this winter?

Manager Stoddard is trying to get an answer to that question.

"I am going to play first class attractions for a while," he said to a Gazette man last night. "Then if the people don't want to patronize them I shall have to do the other thing. 'The Vale of Avoca' played at Madison last night to a one dollar admission. Here the best seats in the house are but seventy five cents. If the people do not appreciate first class companies at that price, I shall think they want repertoire companies at popular prices. I have refused to book thirty companies, to make a small estimate, that wanted to come here at popular prices. The play tonight is first class, it is a new piece, staged in the highest style of the art and composed of nearly twenty-five good people. But you see the house it drew. It rests with the people what kind of plays they have."

Last Night's Fine Performance

Manager Stoddard spoke the truth when he said last night's performance was good. "The Vale of Avoca" is the old story, but so differently garbed that its presentation was decidedly refreshing. The villain, the heroine and the other stereotyped characters appear, but their parts are changed in form and then ably portrayed. Charles H. Hopper is not only a decidedly natural Irish impersonator, but he sings like a bird and carries his comedy parts with a breezy finish that was much enjoyed, while the company was uniformly good. Miss Jennie Satterlee as "Mrs. Brennan" leaves nothing to be desired, while Charles Sheffer, who played the part of a negro servant was equally at home whether carrying the card tray or singing the Southern plantation melodies. "The Vale of Avoca" was good from every point of view and it should have had a large audience.

Good Line of Plays Coming.

The books show that Manager Stoddard is selecting his attractions carefully these days. The next company to play in Janesville will be Donnelly & Girard, of "Natural Gas" fame, who will present their new play "The Rainmakers," on next Tuesday evening, October 29. "The Rainmakers" is said to excel "Natural Gas," and the old Janesville favorites will probably be warmly greeted.

Miss Emily Banker in "Our Flats," will be seen Saturday evening, November 2.

Murray & Mack, the Irish comedians, follow "Our Flats," their date being November 6.

Barlow Brothers Minstrels were booked for Monday, November 4, but cancelled because of the failure of the printing firm to get out their advertising matter. Manager Stoddard went to Chicago today to endeavor to secure the Columbian Opera Company in place of the minstrels.

ST. VITUS' DANCE.

Childhood's Terrible Nerve Disease.

Getting Fearfully Common—Epidemic Among Children.

How It Comes On and How to Detect Its Approach.

Nerves of Children Delicate and Must Be Fed.

Dr. Greene's Nervura Makes Them Strong and Well.

The signs of nerve disorders in children are plain. There will be a pale look, darkness under the eyes, pinched features, and restlessness, irritability and nervousness. The appetite is irregular, the sleep restless and disturbed, with tossing from side to side, starting in sleep, gritting the teeth; there is indisposition to play, the child remaining quiet and inactive, and complaining of feeling tired. These are the first symptoms and should be attended to at once, in order to check serious trouble.

If St. Vitus' dance or fits are to result, there will be an unnatural, rapid winking of the eyelids, an involuntary twitching of the face, hand, arm leg or some portion of the body, the pale, pinched look will be more marked, and the nervousness will grow rapidly worse. If treatment is delayed, there is fearful danger of serious and fatal prostration of the nervous system.

If parents will give their children suffering from any of the above symptoms, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, they will be rejoiced as Mrs. F. B. Danforth, of 10 Everett St., Malden, Mass., whose little daughter has been cured by this wonderful medicine of severe St. Vitus' dance.

MARY E. DANFORTH.

"The winter my little daughter was seven," she says, "she had a long run of rheumatic fever. Then the St. Vitus' dance came on, and she got so bad she could hardly walk or talk. Several doctors treated her but they did not help her.

"I tried several remedies, and as I built up her general health she slowly gained, but never got entirely over it. The next year it came on again and a worse form than before.

"I tried Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and I could see a change for the better before she had taken the first bottle. She took three bottles regularly, and since then I have given it to her when she got tired and was restless at night, but there is now no sign of St. Vitus' dance about her in any way, and I trust she will never be troubled with it again.

"I recommend Dr. Greene's Nervura to all those who are suffering in a similar manner."

It is only necessary to say that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is purely vegetable and perfectly harmless, and may be given to sleepless, restless infants, nervous children, or the most delicate invalids with absolute assurance of beneficial results. It is indeed a wonderful medicine for children, because it makes them strong, healthy vigorous and well.

It has what no other remedy has, a well known physician responsible for its good action and effects. It is the discovery and prescription of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and he can be consulted in all cases without charge, personally or by letter.

MARSH FIRES RAGE IN AVON TOWNSHIP

MANY TONS OF HAY BURN AND MEADOWS RUINED.

Ode Farmer Saves His Stacks By Beating the Flames Down With His Overcoat—Turf Burns to Cinders Thus Ruining the Land for Hay—County News.

Marsh fires are raging in the southeastern part of the town of Avon, and already sixty tons of hay have been destroyed, to say nothing of the damage done to the meadows. The fire began last Friday on the farm of Mr. Norris, and now has extended to the premises of Leroy Stokes. In spite of strenuous efforts to smother the flames several stacks of hay have been burned, among the losses in this direction being Thomas Carroll, who has not a pound left, which is a good deal to a farmer this year when hay is so scarce.

One farmer's stacks were saved by a neighbor whipping the flames with his overcoat.

The turf burns to cinders to the very roots of the grass, thus ruining the meadows for several seasons.

HANRAHAN'S DEATH DUE TO INSANITY

THE CORONER'S JURY SO DECIDED TODAY.

It Was His Second Attempt at Self Destruction, He Having Taken Chloroform Two Weeks Ago But Was Saved—Fear of Poverty Preyed On His Mind.

Thomas Hanrahan killed himself while suffering from temporary insanity.

That was the decision reached by the coroner's jury who heard the testimony taken at the inquest held before Justice M. S. Prichard this morning. The Jurymen were N. Fredricks, C. S. Crow, B. D. Rockwood, Otto Smith, E. W. Childs and W. H. Pierce, and they rendered their verdict in conformity with the evidence.

The inquest developed the fact that Mr. Hanrahan had attempted suicide before but without success. Two weeks ago Sunday he took a dose of chloroform. The family at once summoned Dr. J. G. Hughes to whom Hanrahan admitted that he had taken the anesthetic with suicidal intent.

The fear that he would descend to want was the cause of the depression that led the dead man to take his life. He had lost a number of hogs with the cholera. This preyed upon his mind and with the illness with which he had been afflicted, so worried him that, he became unbalanced. Mr. Hanrahan was sixty one years of age.

The funeral will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, from St. Patrick's church.

Take Care! There is Danger

In allowing inactivity of the kidneys to grow through neglect. The cloudy urine of Bright's disease and diabetes will wreck the goodly bark of health if it is allowed to drift rudderless upon them. The bladder, too, if inactive, and judicious medication does not speedily direct the helm toward the port of safety, will be whelmed by the quicksand of disease. In selecting a diuretic, let your choice fall upon Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which stimulates the renal organs without irritating and exciting them. Two effects to be apprehended from the unmedicated stimuli largely resorted to. These have a tendency to react prejudicially. The Bitters invigorate the kidneys and bladder in connection with the nerves and digestive organs, and so afford lasting aid.

It also affords dual assistance in preventing and eradicating intermitting and remittent fever. Biliousness, constipation and rheumatism is also subjugated.

COLUMBUS A GREATER EXPLORER

Rusk Lyceum Decide That He Deserves More Credit Than Livingston.

The Rusk Lyceum held its regular session last evening at Arcanum hall.

The debate was on the subject,

"Resolved, That Livingston Was a Greater Explorer Than Columbus."

The affirmative was represented by Messrs. Holmes and L. Wilcox, and the negative by Messrs. Reeder, William-Messrs. Rowe, Clark and Baker, decided in favor of the negative.

The subject for debate next Wed-

"Resolved, That the Public Schools Should Be Under National Control."

The lyceum has hired the large hall, and now has better facilities for the accommodation of visitors.

The subject of next meeting will un-should attend. The Lyceum voted to Messrs. Danniston, Palmer and Reeder

LUXURY IN A CAMPING WAGON

Chicago Business Men Pass Through Janesville on a Month's Trip.

A camping outfit on wheels, that was built on "the Pullman car" plan, was in town yesterday on its way from Chicago to Lake Koshkonong. The wagon was covered outfit, with sleeping, cooking and eating apartments, and was first class in every respect. A tent is carried along to shelter the horses, and every article known to the hunting and fishing enthusiast was stored away within the wagon.

The left Chicago on October 17. Their first stop was at Twin Lakes and after a short stay at Indian Ford, they will enjoy duck hunting at Koshkonong

Lake. The party included B. W.

Richardson, Dr. A. E. Seegitz and

C. W. Ryan all well known Chicago business and professional men. They are out for a month's recreation.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. D. Stevens.

STEALS WITH FLY PAPER.

Novel Scheme That John Berger Worked on St. James' Church.

A new use for fly paper was discovered by Chicago police recently when they arrested John Berger at St. James'

Catholic church. For some time past Father McGuire had noticed that the poor boxes placed at the church door were not yielding as much money as formerly. John Hogan and John Kenneally kept watch of the boxes and saw Berger lingering near one. Police officers were sent for. Berger ran into the priest's house, where he was caught.

He tried to throw away a large piece of fly paper, but was prevented.

In his pocket was $160 in small change, all the pieces of money being covered with sticky gum from the paper. Berger's scheme to beat the poor boxes was to insert a long narrow strip of the sticky paper in the narrow slit of the box and pull it out with several coins adhering to the gum.

Wonderful Plant.

The "goose plant," one of nature's strange and marvelous productions, is the most rare and unique botanical oddity known to the naturalists. Its house is in the superheated ooze of the Amazon river swamps, and but one specimen of it, that exhibited at the World's Fair two years ago, has ever been seen on the North American continent. It is so scarce that even in Brazil it is considered a wonder of wonders, and those who were fortunate enough to get a glimpse of the specimen in the Jackson park collection may congratulate themselves on having seen something that would have been a first-class surprise to a native Amazonian. The "geese" which grow on this remarkable plant are real geese, as far as appearances go. In the full-grown plant they have well-formed bodies of goosely size, shape and color; breasts apparently formed to stem buffeting waves, and necks and heads which so exactly imitate those of a real goose as to almost make animated nature ashamed of herself.

The Clock Industry.

The manufacturers of clocks have not been so busy at any time during several years past as they are at present; the factories devoted to the production of silver-plated ware are running full time, with large complements of operatives; the watch manufacturers have this year given their hands shorter vacations than usual, and are increasing their already large forces; the jewelry manufacturers of Providence, New York, Newark and other centers are running their factories to their utmost capacity; the importers of art goods, pottery and bric-a-brac are receiving extensive shipments of goods; makers of cut glass are producing many new patterns and are working every frame in their plants. Thus the anticipation of a golden shower during the fall season is evident throughout the manufacturing branches of our industry, and that the manufacturers will not be disappointed all signs indicate.

SAY, why don't you try De Witt's

Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small but do the work. C. D. Stevens.

MRS. EDMUND JAMES AFRAID OF INJURY.

Thought Her Husband Was Going to Poison Her With Colt Medicine—Statement Is Not Credited—Woman and Child Are Now Staying With Janesville Friends.

According to the story told by the Milton papers, Mrs. Edmund James and her child are now in Janesville because they did not deem it safe to remain on their home, on a farm near the Bullock school house four miles east of Milton. The Journal says that when Mrs. James left her home, the report was current that her husband and the hired man had attempted to poison her but upon investigation this is believed to be untrue.

Mr. James had purchased a small quantity of white vitrol to use on a colt and carried the solution in his pocket and she discovered the bottle. The Journal continues: "Mrs. James is not over-intelligent and is given to superstitious fears. To her mind, overwrought by her fears, this was conclusive evidence that her life was in danger. Late in the evening after Mr. James had gone to bed, she took their only child a girl twelve years old and fled to a neighbor's house and friends have since taken them to Janesville where they now are. Mr. James began search that night for his wife and not until next day did he find where they had gone. They had been married twenty years.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

1682—The peace of Westphalia ended the dreadful Thirty Years' war.
 1820—Florida ceded to the United States by Spain.
 1828—Joseph Lancaster, celebrated teacher and originator of the Lancastrian system of education, died at New York; born in London. Professor Lancaster was a member of the Society of Friends. He opened a school at the age of 20 and made a successful experiment in mutual instruction. Under the patronage of noblemen he wrote and lectured, giving a decided impulse to education in England and other countries. He came to the United States in 1818 and continued the work until his death.
 1852—Daniel Webster, American orator and statesman, died at Marshfield, Mass.; born 1782.
 1854—Affair at Balaklava, in the Crimea, made famous by the charge of the Light brigade.
 1890—Rear Admiral Walter W. Queen, U. S. N., retired, died in Washington; born 1824.

THE NEW HIGH SCHOOL.

Janesville's new high school—formally dedicated today—tells of great changes in educational work.

The time when books were all in past.

The pupil, not the book, is the standard today.

Classes no longer plod mechanically through a text book. Each pupil in the class is taken separately—his strength fostered—his weakness remedied. He is allowed to accept no theories until he has proved them in laboratory and experiment room.

For work of this sort the new high school is preeminently fitted. It is beautifully adapted to the developing of individual power—a splendid instrument for making thoughtful, ready, capable men and women.

MORE WAR TALK.

Today's dispatches from Venezuela sound warlike. The British government is manifestly preparing for an emergency. Not only are the defenses of the frontier to be increased, but the military and police forces of the colony are to be augmented.

Most people will take this to mean that the government intends to hold the territory within the disputed boundary line by force if necessary, and there can be no doubt that this interpretation is correct. There has never been any reason to believe that Great Britain would give up any part of the territory to which she has so long laid claim until compelled to do so.

It is significant that the British minister at Washington has received no information on the subject and apparently does not expect any. If this is accepted by our government as an intimation that the British government does not recognize its right to receive any information in the matter through the diplomatic representative of Great Britain it will be interesting to see how the Washington authorities will treat it.

Mayor Pingree harvested his municipal potato crop in Detroit and went east to tell New Yorkers that their street railways earned 25 per cent on the money invested and that three cent fares should be demanded. With that as his platform Pingree can be elected president without a struggle.

Is there something about water that makes people pugnacious? A committee of ten got together and settled the question of a new city charter in two hours, but the water works question is knocked around and clawed about for a year and seems no nearer a settlement than at first.

Next time those merry Beloit collegians play boyish pranks they will find some other place than Janesville. Their fun is not appreciated here and people who demand pay for broken glass and ruined linen do spoil a joke so.

A lot of sound-money democrats in Kentucky will have to vote the republican ticket next month or else spend election day in the tall timber. They can't vote the democratic ticket without stultifying themselves.

Rock county farmers who went into dairying last summer got the best of the grain-raisers, despite short pasturage. This is a dairy country and the Jersey is queer.

As long as two gunboats and a battleship are added to the American navy in a week, the Monroe doctrine will take care of itself without President Cleveland's help.

Next week will be Y. M. U. A. week in Janesville. The leaders hope to make each week in the year Y. M. C. A. week after awhile.

That cordial and effusive statesman, Senator Sherman, thinks General Harrison "a trifle cold and abrupt."

A Poor Plan.

He—You never seem to care a straw whether I am comfortable or not. You are not the sort of a wife your sister was to her husband. As long as he lived she was perfectly devoted to him, and never tired of seeking his happiness.

COLLEGE BOYS GET THEMSELVES INTO TROUBLE.

John Day of this City and Several Others Suspended by the Faculty For Running Across the Campus With the Line, and Knocking the Soldiers Down.

John Day of this city, together with several other sophomores at the State University is involved in some trouble at Madison over a prank that it is alleged they are responsible for. A Madison dispatch to the Chicago Chronicle tells the story as follows: "A tempest in a teapot is raging at the state university tonight and all because the faculty suspended three students. The victims of pedagogic wrath are prominent and popular fellows and famous among local athletes. One of them is Frank Dillon of Normal, Ill., the great varsity pitcher two summers ago. He is 'fired' until February. Another is G. W. Pope of Waupun, who won the mile run at the field day in the spring and is secretary of the sophomore class. He is served the same as Dillon. Still another is John Day of Janesville, president of sophomore class and the chap who won five events at the freshman field sports a few days ago.

Suspended until Christmas. "He is a member of the varsity crew as well, but all this notability did not save him from being suspended until Christmas.

"These boys were guilty with forty other 'sophs,' of irreverently sweeping off the campus with a long rope a whole company of freshmen, together with the officers, and, shocking to tell, the mighty commandant, too—Colonel Chynoweth. And now the forty other guilty 'sophs' are pleading for the restoration of their classmates, while a monster student petition to the stormy faculty is in circulation, and all the upper classmen threaten to throw up their positions on the battalion unless the popular trio is recalled, while Colonel Chynoweth is said to declare that he'll resign unless the faculty stands by him and properly disciplines the graceless 'sophs.'"

Had But Little to Tell

Another dispatch says that in searching out those who had participated in the mischief the faculty met with lots of difficulties. Almost the entire sophomore class was questioned—that is the male portion of it—and all of them were very ignorant as to what occurred on the campus. Most of them could not even remember who had held of the rope, and one sophomore did not even know the name of his room mate. This young man was advised by Col. Chynoweth to get better acquainted with the members of his class. But the affair on the campus Thursday was not by any means the only clash which has occurred between the sophomores and freshmen this year. There have been several sophomore who have at times visited the rooms of freshmen and by various little incidents taught them that it was their first year in the university. The hazing, however, has been of a mild kind and no one has suffered in any great degree from its consequences.

Class Hangs Together.

This morning's Times Herald says that the faculty has not rescinded its action suspending the students, although strong pressure to have them returned has been brought by the students. Last night the freshman class held a meeting and passed resolutions requesting the faculty to reinstate the suspended students. A committee from the sophomore class yesterday afternoon presented a petition signed by thirty-six members of that class to Lieutenant Chynoweth, military instructor, acknowledging themselves equally guilty with the three suspended men and requesting leniency for all concerned. The twenty-eight non-commissioned officers of the university battalion have signed a joint resignation which will be presented if the suspended men are not reinstated.

Big Days Work Done as a Test for the Machine.

HE SHOT A BURGLAR BUT DIDN'T GET HIM

MILTON MAN WAS HANDY WITH HIS GUN.

Waited Until the Thief Was All But In the House Before He Fired—Blood Marks Showed that the Ball Reached Its Mark—Rice Brothers Are Here.

F. G. Daniels of Milton, shot the burglar that he caught in the act of breaking into his residence, and now he offers $50 reward for the arrest and conviction of the thief who can be identified by the bullet wound in his wrist.

Daniels heard the burglar at work at 1 o'clock a. m., and warning his wife to remain quiet, he stepped softly to the door with his Smith & Wesson revolver in his hand. Waiting until the burglar had cut the screen, unhooked it and began to turn the knob, he fired. The ball passed through the door just above the lock so that it burst the outside knob into a hundred pieces, probably maiming the culprit for life, for he hurried away leaving a considerable amount of blood on the wall.

The Rice brothers who were convicted of stealing chickens, at Monroe, were in Janesville today and took their dinner at the jail. They were on their way to Waupun, Judge Bennett having sentenced them to two years each in state prison. The Rices have lived at and near Beloit, and conducted a wholesale hen roost business. The crime for which they were sentenced was committed at Brodhead. They took their booty to Rockford and sold it, and on their way to Beloit they stole another wagon load of poultry and sold them in that city. Marshal Appleby arrested them and had warrants for them in case justice had miscarried at Monroe.

What Japan Needs.

An educated Japanese who is a Christian recently wrote the following as being what Japan needs: "We Japanese want Christianity, but no denominational differences such as would build a barrier against the ultimate union of all who believe in Christ. Theologians might differ in their views, but our principal and spirit, as followers of the cross, shall be one and the same for all time to come. Thou, O Christ, inspire us with thy Spirit of universal kinship and love of humanity; help us to direct our efforts to hasten the time when all the people of the world shall unanimously rejoice in thy universal salvation."

A CROWD ATTENDED THE DEDICATION

HIGH SCHOOL BUILDING FORMALLY CONSECRATED.

Exercises Took Place at 2 O'clock this Afternoon and Were of an Interesting Nature—Addresses Made By Noted Educators—Music Furnished Pupils of the State Schools.

Janesville's handsome new high school building was dedicated with appropriate ceremonies this afternoon. The exercises began at 2 o'clock, and a goodly audience was present, the celebration being held in the school proper. School was not dismissed in honor of the occasion, as there would not have been room to accommodate the small children if it had been. The high school classes had the position of honor in the gallery, and class colors were conspicuously displayed by them. The orchestra from the School for the Blind had kindly volunteered their services through Superintendent Bliss, and their music was one on the features of the occasion.

The programme opened with music, and the address of T. W. Goldin, as president of the school board, followed. Mr. Goldin spoke in his usual happy vein, and prayer by Dr. Sabin Halsey preceded the address by E. A. Birge, dean of the University of Wisconsin. Addresses by E. D. Eaton, of Beloit, president of Beloit College; W. H. Chandler, of Madison, state inspector of high schools; Hon. Ogden H. Fethers and Hon. Pliny Norcross were on the programme in the order named, but at 3 o'clock the exercises had only gotten nicely under way.

LESSON OF THE LILIES.

Dear lilies of the field, they grew In sweet profusion by the road, Where passed the Sunday people through To worship in their church abode.

"Why are we daily wasting here?"
The lilies asked in mild complaint—"There is no shade protecting near."
In heat and dust we often faint.

"'Twas cruel of our Lord to make His flower children suffer so!" Then answered one, "For his dear sake It might be here we ought to grow."

There passed that way a maiden fair, In spotless white for church arrayed.
She saw the lilies blooming there—
"I'll gather them to wear," she said.

That morn a youthful preacher stood To break the bread and speak the prayer, Then waited in a thoughtful mood To find his inspiration there.

When soft to her accustomed place
The little maiden gently trod, The preacher bowed his anxious face,
And in his spirit prayed, "Thank God!"

Here was his text, his sermon, too,
"The lilies of the field," he spake In words of love, with meaning new,
The bread of life to them he brake.

And in the little maiden's eyes He saw delight and sweet content, Then said the lilies, growing wise, "Our Lord this very lesson meant."

A LOCK OF HAIR.

The city of Megara lay smiling in the summer sun. Its marble palaces, its tall columns, its towers and turrets were gay with flowing plume and flag, for it was a feast day. The sun had been up only an hour, but already the streets were swarming with children, who had risen early to gather flowers to decorate the temples. Soft laughter rose on the fragrant air, and looks of trouble were for the time cast aside.

Could one conceive of a more peaceful and contented people? Yet sincere as their happiness was now, it was only as a ray of broken light streaming through a rift in the dark clouds.

For Megara was besieged and the camp of the enemy lay just outside the walls of the city. A truce had been declared that the people might celebrate their holy rites to the gods.

And so, grateful for the lull in the strife which for six months had borne heavily upon them, the people threw care to the winds and put all their hearts and souls into the pure pleasure of this one blessed day. They heeded not that this reprieve was but the false hope sent by a cruel fate and that the darkest hour of their trial was coming swiftly on silent wings.

The people now passed in throngs, all gayly attired in their holiday clothes, which for months had been put aside.
It was time for the ceremony of sacrifice, and the young maidens, dressed in spotless white, with white flowers entwined in their locks and trailing over their flowing robes, looked like seraphs, with their young faces all aglow with holy enthusiasm.

On a smooth, rolling plain, covered with its natural carpet of green and dotted with flowers which seemed like a sprinkling of sunbeams, the altar had been erected. The procession formed slowly, the white-robed maidens coming first, chanting and swaying slightly to an easy dancing step. Then followed the youths of the kingdom, their boyish voices taking up the strain of the maid-ens, swelling it louder and rolling it over the long ranks.

When these had formed a circle about the altar, a long avenue was left clear, and then the glory of the procession came into view. Six tiny maidens, clad in rainbow hue, held in their hands masses of flowers intertwined about ribbons and leading by them a snow white bull. Its horns were like ivory and shone in the sunlight. No flower or ornament was needed to add a charm to the perfect animal.

Walking beside it, her arms thrown caressingly around its neck, was the pride of the kingdom, Scylla, the king's daughter. She was tall and slight and as graceful as a reed. Her dark hair hung about her in lustrous coils and swept over the back of the bull. Her robe was of cloth of gold, and deep purple amethysts fastened its folds and glistered from her black hair. Other ornaments she had none.

Closely following her was Nisus, the king, surrounded by his guards. He, like his daughter, was tall and dark, with the same kind of hair, except that one lock, falling over his shoulder, shone purple, like the light from her amethysts.

No wonder the daughter loved the purple stone, even as Nisus treasured the purple lock, for it reflected the light from that lock on which depended the safety of the country.

The children led the bull to the altar.
Scylla stood beside it, till the king approached with the gleaming knife.
Then, with a low cry, she threw her arms about the creature's neck and pressed a kiss on its white face. But her grief did not interrupt the ceremony, and the sacrifice was made.

When Scylla reached home, she went up into the high tower of the palace, from which she could look down over the whole city and beyond it. Outside the walls she saw, as she had seen for the last six months, the camp of King Minos of Crete, and beyond the wide plain the ocean stretching out, out, to liberty. For though she was a princess, Scylla felt like a bird in a golden cage.

As she looked down over the camp and watched the tents a figure issued from one of them. During the whole time of the siege she had watched the enemy from the tower, and had learned to distinguish the officers by name. And he who but now emerged from his tent was no other than King Minos himself.
It was easy to know him from the others, for, tall as they were, he overtopped them all, as a great oak in the midst of a beech grove. Then, too, his bearing was that of a king. That noble brow revealed a character grand, good and just. In fact, the king was what a king should be, and when, dressed in his flowing purple, he rode his white horse, he had all the charms that a knight could wish to win a fair lady's heart.

And Scylla looked till he passed from her view, as she had done every time she had seen him.

Then wild thoughts coursed through her excited brain. How cruel a war was, yet she blessed this war that brought Minos to her sight. But how terrible if he should be killed. Oh, if only peace might be had, she would have offered herself as a hostage.

Then came the wild thought of delivering the city up. She could easily do it, but one obstacle was in her way.
The fates had decreed that so long as the purple lock remained on her father's head the city should stand. It needed but that she should remove it and all would be well, for surely Minos would be grateful to her and she would be happy.

And then came the thought of that father's shame and degradation, but only for a moment, as one thought after another coursed through her mind. She felt that she could pass through fire and water to serve Minos, yet that was not needed. Another woman would dare as much, and could any one dare more than she?

Then the victory was won, but not on the side of duty. And only then, when she had fully determined on her plan did she find peace or rest.

That night she arrayed herself in her richest robes. Never had she looked more beautiful. The graces themselves might have envied her. And Nisus smiled a welcome to his daughter as she entered the banqueting hall. All traces of her grief at the sacrifice had disappeared, and the king was glad.

Scylla suffered all his attention and endearments, but hurried to her apartments as soon as she could. She feared lest her resolution might weaken and so her happiness be forever lost.

How many of us have stood in a like position, with all the seasons for and against our actions crushing us down, our life and death in the balance, which a breath could give or take!

It was after the midnight watch had been called and the palace was sunk in slumber that a figure enveloped in a dark cloak glided through the wide corridor to the king's apartments. At the door a challenge rung out, but a moment later the sentinel knelt and the princess passed in to her father.

Nisus slept, and the daughter slowly approached his couch. How noble he looked, but the girl stole her heart against him!

A moment later the dark figure fled down the corridors as it had come, but a gleam of triumph shone from the eyes and love and victory struggled for mastery in the countenance. And the king slept on, but the purple lock had left his head forever!

So Scylla went through the dark city and left it behind her as she passed the wall through a secret gate. Swiftly she entered the camp of the enemy and demanded to see King Minos.

When the king beheld her, he thought so lovely a woman had never before walked the earth, but when holding out the purple lock she said that she gave up her city, her father, herself, he spurned her from him.

"Shall Crete," he cried, "where Jove himself was cradled, be polluted by this monster? Infamous woman, begone and may neither land nor sea afford thee a resting place!"

"Alas!" cried Scylla. "For thee have I given up everything! Aye, I am deserving of death, but thy hand should not be the one to deal the blow!"

But Minos would have nothing to do with her, and the next morning, giving orders that equitable terms should be allowed to the vanquished city, he sailed away with his fleet.

As the ships were departing Scylla jumped into the sea, and grasping the rudder of the vessel that conveyed Minos was carried along with it till an eagle, into which her father had been changed, darted down and pecked at her with its beak and claws. Scylla cried for mercy, and some pitying deity changed her into a bird.

And to this day the eagle pounces upon the gull, ever seeking vengeance for the old crime.—Virginia Horton in
